FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Pregnant Pause

Fresh from her encounter with the angel Gabriel, Mary runs to visit her older relative. Can you imagine this visit, this meeting of intimates? Two women pregnant with the promise of new life, pregnant with hope. Two women in their time of wonder and wondering--nine months full of expectation and mystery.

Unexpectedly, their lives have been graciously rearranged. One mother-to-be is expecting a child in her old age. The other will be the virgin mother of God. Surely each ponders what her life will be now, how it will change. What does it mean that God has chosen each for her particular task? What does it mean that each has said yes? What will the future hold?

In their holy moment of wondering and wonderment, Mary and Elizabeth lead us into a pregnant pause. We, too, ponder what God is doing in us and through us. We wonder what the future will bring. We count the cost of saying yes to God. We share our hopes and fears, our longings and our joys with those dear to us. Like these faithful women, we experience holy moments, blessed by God, when we open ourselves to the mystery of God's presence and the unexpectedness of God's leading.

Where is your pregnant pause? Where is the quiet place within that could become a cradle for the God who desires to make a home in you? How do you welcome God's gracious leading? What is it that leaps for joy within you? In these waning days of Advent, these days of expectation and hope, pause with Mary and Elizabeth. Dear, favored ones of God, let this pause fill you with the gentle and startling love of God in Christ Jesus. Let this love grow inside you and be born again and again.

Lighting the Fourth Advent Candle

Isaiah 9:6

P: For a child has been born for us, a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

P: Blessed are you, God of hosts, for you promised to send a son, Emmanuel, who brought your presence among us; and you promise through your Son Jesus to save us from our sin.

(Light the fourth candle)

P: As we light these candles, turn again to us in mercy, strengthen our faith in the word spoken by your prophets; restore us and give us life that we may be saved.

P: O house of David, come,

C: let us rejoice, for the Son of God, Emmanuel, comes to be with us. Amen.

Confession and Forgiveness

(All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism)

P: Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who alone does wonders, who lifts up the lowly, who fills the hungry with good things.

C: Amen.

P: Let us confess our sin, trusting in the tender mercy of our God.

(Silence is kept for reflection.)

P: God for whom we wait,

C: in the presence of one another,
we confess our sin before you.
We fail in believing that your good news is for us.

We falter in our call to tend your creation.
We find our sense of self in material wealth.
We fear those different from ourselves.
We forget that we are your children and turn away from your love.
Forgive us, Blessed One,
and assure us again of your saving grace. Amen.

P: God, in Christ Jesus, has looked with favor upon you! Through the power of the Holy Spirit, † your sins are forgiven. You are children of the Most High, inheritors of the eternal promise, and recipients of divine mercy. God strengthens you anew to follow the way of peace.

C: Amen.

Prayer of the Day

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Let us pray. Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come. With your abundant grace and might, free us from the sin that binds us, that we may receive you in joy and serve you always, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Announcements

FIRST READING: Micah 5:2-5a

Many years before the time of Micah, God promised David his dynasty would last forever. Although prophets such as Micah warned judgment would come from unfaithfulness, Micah foresees a restoration beyond that judgment.

But you, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me
one who is to rule in Israel, whose origin is from of old,
from ancient days.

³Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has brought forth;
then the rest of his kindred shall return to the people of Israel.

⁴And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God.
And they shall live secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth;

⁵and he shall be the one of peace.

PSALM 80:1-7

Let your face shine, that we may be saved. (Ps. 80:7)

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock!

You who are enthroned upon the cherubim, shine forth

²before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh.

Stir up your might, and come to save us!

³Restore us, O God;

let your face shine, that we may be saved.

⁴O Lord God of hosts,

how long will you be angry with your people's prayers?

⁵You have fed them with the bread of tears,

and given them tears to drink in full measure.

⁶You make us the scorn of our neighbors;

our enemies laugh among themselves.

⁷Restore us, O God of hosts;

let your face shine, that we may be saved.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 10:5-10

The author uses the image of religious sacrifice to convey the significance of Christ's coming. Through obedient acceptance of God's will, Christ allows his own body to become the greatest sacrifice of all, one through which we are made a holy people.

Consequently, when Christ came into the world, he said,

"Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired,

but a body you have prepared for me;

⁶in burnt offerings and sin offerings

you have taken no pleasure.

⁷Then I said, 'See, God, I have come to do your will, O God'

(in the scroll of the book it is written of me)."

⁸When he said above, "You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings" (these are offered according to the law), ⁹then he added, "See, I have come to do your will." He abolishes the first in order to establish the second. ¹⁰And it is by God's will that we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Where love can grow
And peace is understood.*

Gospel Acclamation

P: The Gospel according to St. Luke Chapter 1.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

GOSPEL: Luke 1:39-55

Luke presents Elizabeth, the mother of John the Baptist, and Mary, the mother of Jesus, as women who are filled with the Holy Spirit and faith. We hear Elizabeth's inspired greeting and Mary's song of praise: God is among the lowly and the hungry.

In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, ⁴⁰where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit ⁴²and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. ⁴³And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? ⁴⁴For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. ⁴⁵And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord."

⁴⁶And Mary said,

"My soul magnifies the Lord,

⁴⁷and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,

⁴⁸for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant.

Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed;

⁴⁹for the Mighty One has done great things for me,
and holy is his name.

⁵⁰His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.

⁵¹He has shown strength with his arm;
he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

⁵²He has brought down the powerful from their thrones,
and lifted up the lowly;

⁵³he has filled the hungry with good things,
and sent the rich away empty.

⁵⁴He has helped his servant Israel,
in remembrance of his mercy,

⁵⁵according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever."

Gospel Response

P: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

He came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
He suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.
