SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Whose Resurrection Is It?

It is not just Jesus who gets his life back on Easter. On Easter evening, the frightened, grief-stricken, locked away disciples get Jesus back, and through his presence and his words to them, they get their own lives back as well. "Peace be with you," he says.

Thomas misses all this. The others say to him, "We have seen the Lord." Yet Thomas can only visualize something else: all those puncture wounds.

The horrible has a way of pushing everything else out of our consciousness. When we are going through something dreadful, it is nearly always the only thing we can think about. It is all we can picture.

Thomas knows what happened to Jesus on Good Friday. It is easy to imagine that when Thomas closes his eyes, he sees Jesus as he last saw him. Thomas sees the cross, the nails, the body writhing there for hours and then horribly still. Thomas sees this, knows it, believes it in his bones. Whether he wants to believe something else is beside the point. He knows what he saw.

Yet, in spite of what Thomas has seen and regardless of what Thomas believes, Jesus is alive. He is alive, which means he is able to get to Thomas--and to us--no matter what horrors of the past rise up behind our eyelids. Just as Jesus found a way through those locked doors on Easter evening, so one week later, he finds a way to pry open the grip that Good Friday has on his friend, Thomas.

What's more, when Jesus says, "Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe," he is promising that Thomas is not the last to get his life back as a result of Jesus' resurrection. Jesus is still alive, and still finding ways to welcome his own into a future that our past had given us no reason to expect.

<sup>23</sup>If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

<sup>24</sup>But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup>So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

<sup>26</sup>A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." <sup>27</sup>Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." <sup>28</sup>Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" <sup>29</sup>Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

<sup>30</sup>Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. <sup>31</sup>But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Announcements

FIRST READING: Acts 2:14a, 22-32

After the Holy Spirit came to the apostles on Pentecost, Peter preaches the gospel to the crowd. He tells them that Jesus, who obediently went to his death according to God's plan, was raised from the dead by God. Finally, he quotes Psalm 16:8-11 to show that Jesus is the Messiah: Though crucified, the risen Jesus is now enthroned.

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the people:

<sup>22</sup>"You that are Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know--<sup>23</sup>this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. <sup>24</sup>But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power.

SECOND READING: 1 Peter 1:3-9

Peter wrote to encourage Christians who were suffering for their faith. He begins by praising God for the resurrection of Jesus, which produces hope, both then and now.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith--being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire--may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.

Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

GOSPEL: John 20:19-31

One week after Easter, Christ still comes to those who believe in him: he seeks any who may have missed his offer of peace and life through his resurrection.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

'I saw the Lord always before me,
for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken;
<sup>26</sup>therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
moreover my flesh will live in hope.
<sup>27</sup>For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption.
You have made known to me the ways of life;
you will make me full of gladness with your presence.'

<sup>28</sup>Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.
<sup>29</sup>Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying,
'He was not abandoned to Hades,
nor did his flesh experience corruption.'

<sup>32</sup>This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses."

PSALM: Psalm 16

In your presence there is fullness of joy. (Ps. 16:11)

Protect me, O God, for in you I take refuge.
<sup>2</sup> I say to the Lord, "You are my Lord;
I have no good apart from you."
<sup>3</sup>As for the holy ones in the land, they are the noble ones in whom is all my delight.
<sup>4</sup>Those who choose another god multiply their sorrows;
their drink offerings of blood I will not pour out or take their names upon my lips.
<sup>5</sup>The Lord is my chosen portion and my cup;
you hold my lot.
<sup>6</sup>The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places;
I have a goodly heritage.
<sup>7</sup>I bless the Lord, who gives me counsel;
in the night also my heart instructs me.
<sup>8</sup>I keep the Lord always before me;
because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
<sup>9</sup>Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices;
my body also rests secure.
<sup>10</sup>For you do not give me up to Sheol or let your faithful one see the Pit.
<sup>11</sup>You show me the path of life.
In your presence there is fullness of joy;
in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.
